MEDICAL SYMPOSIUM
UPDATES ON PREVENTION AND EARLY DIAGNOSIS

FLORENCE
MAY 10
PALAZZO BUDINI GATTAI

ABSTRACT

The Medical Symposium “Updates on Prevention and Early Diagnosis” offers a unique opportunity for doctors to stay updated on the latest innovations in the medical field. During the event, nine experts will discuss highly relevant topics, including the latest advancements in heart failure, prevention and diagnosis of cognitive decline, imaging, and biomarkers related to these conditions. The symposium will also explore issues related to the prevention of sexually transmitted diseases and women’s health, proposing innovative solutions to improve female well-being. Additionally, the role of general medicine in early diagnosis and prevention will be addressed. It will be an unmissable opportunity to deepen and discuss the most modern preventive and diagnostic strategies.

Participation in the event will grant access to a 10-credit ECM Continuing Medical Education (CME) online course.
